Description

Chateau des Egrons is set in the Gironde hills bordering the Dordogne and the Lot-et-Garonne. The beautiful wine country of South West France. The chateau has panoramic views of the surrounding countryside and offers great privacy in a two acre garden surrounded by a clipped hedge.

The grounds include a heated swimming pool with views and areas offering shade, there is a private all weather tennis court that can be used all year round. For the golfer there is a championship golf course a few minutes away.

The house has five receptions rooms and five large bedrooms; all are elegant with high ceilings and period furniture. A huge well equipped chef's kitchen, lots of eating places, front courtyard and rear terrace, all with seating and dining facilities.

Lots of historical features and great beauty.
